Worthy Note:

Every letter has a positive as well as a negative! I'm dealing with the God side, the positive, because that's what God is.

The story the letters tell me:

The strength of the leader of the house who generously gives to the poor man opens the door to the revelation of the nail thus bringing forth the sword of the spirit causing separation giving you a choice which will lead you into his temple giving you anointing which comes with instructions/authority compelling you to wash which brings forth life giving you Gods truth/word to lean on which in turn gives spiritual insight so you can proclaim and by proclaiming you gain/become righteous allowing you to see/be in both realms bringing you to the beginning where you become the likeness of God and can devour your enemies with the covenant/seal you have been stamped in your heart, on your mind and on your forehead with.
